Broadcasting To The World From Ballyfermot in Ireland-Year 3!

For Immediate Release
POC: Chuck Adair

For the third year in a row, WWCR is working with Ballyfermot College in Ireland, to broadcast their programs on International Shortwave Radio.

Students from Senior College, Ballyfermot, will broadcast to the world on their own radio station, Emerald Radio, between Monday, 26 April and Friday, 30 April 1999. Programmers will be relayed from Dublin live via phonelines to WWCR, in Nashville, Tennessee, USA. These broadcasts will be at 11:00AM-Irish Time, 1000 UTC. At the same time, programs will be broadcast on the student's own web site: www.emeraldradio.com.

Emerald Radio is a project undertaken by second year radio and journalism students at Senior College, Ballyfermot. All production, presentation and research is undertaken by students as are the financing and the management of the station. Emerald Radio programs will be broadcast on the following schedule:

4/26-4/30	1000-1100 UTC	5.070 MHz	Live
4/26-4/30	1000-1100 UTC	12.160 MHz	Live
